OTHER INFORMATION

The Committee will take the utmost care in handling the work but cannot be responsible for loss or damage.

To ensure originality and quality, work will NOT be accepted that is: a copy of the work of others; made entirely from a kit or commercial design; and/or an article made entirely from a commercial mold.

All pieces must be dry and ready to be displayed. All unframed artwork needs a hanging sleeve, cleat or loops/rings on the back of the work.

Digital media works can be provided on CD/DVD or Media Card. Interactive computer-based art works must be presented on a supplied computer. Sorry, no on-line artworks can be accommodated.

Work is to have been completed within the last two (2) years.

Work must NOT have been previously shown in a public, commercial or juried exhibition.

For the protection of both people and work, each piece must be able to be carried easily by one person, and fit through a standard door.

Works exceeding four feet (4') in width (including the frame), or of excessive weight or height, will be refused entry by the Committee receiving the work at the time of delivery. The decision of the Committee is final.

Multi panel or multi component pieces (i.e. diptychs, triptychs) will be accepted; however the whole work cannot exceed the 4-foot width limitation as outlined above.

By entering this call, permission is given to the Fraser Valley Heritage Railway Society and any participating sponsors to photograph accepted works for publicity and documentary purposes, including promotion of the exhibition on their websites.

Artists whose work is exhibited may be asked to provide a short (2-3 sentences) artist's statement about that particular work. This statement may be used in the exhibition as part of the label, included in the exhibition catalogue or featured in the Arts Council's Spotlight on the Arts.
